

Refund & Cancellation Policy

At Bring Help India LLP, we have full confidence in our varied range of services, products and online student guidance solutions. We leave no stone unturned in providing our esteemed clients fast, reliable and exceptional service guarantee every time in time we do business with them.

All the services available at Bring Help India website are carried out for the clients after extensive study analysis using a complete foolproof methodology. It ensures full understanding of the work and almost no possibilities of any misguidance. However, any refund and service cancellation is taken place abiding a set of conditions.

Cancellation Policy

- A subscriber can place the cancellation order for a particular service within 7 days of service agreement via mail notification.
- No cancellation is possible for the services offered with promotional discounts on special occasions. These are limited edition offers and hence any range of refund would not be possible.
- In no case, Bring Help India will entertain cancellation requests made for services such as Student Counseling, Student assessment test and scholarship.
- Fee once paid will not be refunded in any case even if the cancellation is posted within 12 hours.
- No service will be provided if no payment is made.

Refund Policy

- Every service offered by us takes different course of action to get accomplished from start to end thus refund policy differs from one service to other.
- There is always a certain set of resources that are involved in achieving every milestone of our service package. Thus, a refund would not be entertained for the work already completed.
- No refund is possible for the fee paid in the form of administrative fees or installation charges.
- Taxes paid on services levied by regulatory bodies would not be refunded with fee refund.
- No refund will be entertained in case service gets canceled due to any violation of terms stated in our Terms & Condition section.
- There is no refund policy for the services placed under same day delivery.
- Bring help India LLP is not liable to pay refund if delay or service disruption happens due to third party involvement.